Course Description

CATALOG DESCRIPTION: A study of concepts of right and wrong, good and evil, and their grounds.

COURSE OVERVIEW: The course is designed to introduce the student to the basic ethical theories—both historical and contemporary—and to the ongoing debate concerning the most controversial moral issues of our day. Such issues include abortion, euthanasia, the welfare of the environment and animals, as well as concerns for economic and social justice.

Upon successfully completing this course, students will be able to do the following:
• to recognize philosophical questions, particularly those surrounding moral controversies
• to know the primary ethical theories throughout the history of philosophy
• to understand and articulate the various ethical controversies that have surfaced in contemporary times.
• work with philosophical concepts and methods, and to construct and evaluate arguments
• to participate in classroom discussion, developing and displaying an ability and readiness to defend one’s own point of view while listening openly but carefully to others
• to demonstrate a willingness to entertain criticism, formulate and reply to reasonable objections, and represent opposing views both critically and sympathetically
• to read both primary and secondary texts and analyze the arguments contained in them correctly

Course Requirements

ANALYTICAL PAPER: The primary reason for attending college is to begin the process of becoming a scholar by reflecting on complicated questions related to the human experience. To this end, each student is required to write an “analytical” paper, arguing the “pro” or “con” of a specific position for one of the topics we addressed in class, e.g., “pro-life” vs. “pro-choice,” “physician-assisted suicide” (pro or con). The paper must be submitted in duplicate, 1) uploaded to Moodle and 2) a hardcopy delivered to the Professor in class. The paper is due on April 8. The paper is worth 16% of the student's final grade. Late Papers: All papers received after that date will be deducted 5 points for each day late.

TESTS: Three tests (including the final) will be given throughout the semester. Each test counts 28% toward the student’s final grade. For students who miss an exam, see “Make-Up” policy below.

PARTICIPATION: Participating in class is encouraged, and can impact the student’s final grade in a positive way in the case of “borderline” grades.

ACADEMIC HONESTY Academic dishonesty undermines the academic enterprise and includes, but is not limited to, the following: cheating, plagiarizing, tampering with academic records or exams, falsifying identity, and being an accessory to acts of academic dishonesty. If you’re foolish enough to do something like this, you’ll be expelled from the course with a failing grade and will be reported to the university.

ATTENDANCE Attendance is expected at all class meetings. Students who miss more than 7 classes throughout the semester will have the tally of their final grade deducted one letter, e.g., from “A” to “B”.

DISABILITY POLICY It is university policy to provide, on a flexible and individualized basis, reasonable accommodation to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in course activities or to meet course requirements. Students with disabilities are encouraged to contract their instructors to discuss their individual needs for accommodations. If you have any questions, contact the Office of Disability Services at UC 260, (504 280-6222 (Voice).

MAKE-UP EXAMS: Make-up exams are allowed. However, the penalty for missing a test (for whatever reason) is a deduction of 8 points from that exam. Make-up exams will only be given during my office hours.

Class Conduct: Each student is required to act in a civil and respectful way.

WITHDRAWALS: You may withdraw from this course for any reason. Look in the University calendar for the last day to withdraw.
