Ten years ago, Hurricanes Katrina and Rita flooded New Orleans and led to one of the largest rebuilding efforts of any American city and region. As the 10th anniversary approaches on Aug 29, 2015, how has the area recovered and changed? Join us for a conversation about disasters, resilience, the coast, food, music, historic preservation, gentrification, the economy, transportation and more!

March 27, 2015. Registration begins at 8:30 am.

9:00 am - 10:30 am: Are we ready for the next big one? The coast, disaster preparedness and resilience 10 years later

10:45 am - 12:15 pm: New Orleans cultures as life and work: Continuity and change in food, music and everyday life

1:15 pm - 2:45 pm: Place, preservation, and disaster: Historic preservation and tangible cultural resources in an uncertain environment

3:00 pm - 4:30 pm: Rebuilding a new New Orleans? A decade of urban change in housing, transportation and economic development
