Marla Nelson
Associate Professor in the Department of Planning and Urban Studies

Marla Nelson is an Associate Professor of Planning and Urban Studies where she coordinates the Master of Urban and Regional Planning program. Nelson’s current research is concentrated in two areas: strategies to promote just redevelopment outcomes in declining cities and neighborhoods and policy interventions to increase opportunities for low-wage workers. Active in local and national organizations, Nelson is a member of the American Planning Association (APA), the American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP) and Planners Network, and serves on the UAA Governing Board, the Vacant Property Research Advisory Board and the Urban Conservancy/StayLocal! Board of Directors.
