Ryan Seidemann

Assistant Attorney General at Louisiana Department of Justice

“Katrina's Legacy in Stone: Have We Learned Anything from the Cemetery Problems of the 2005 Atlantic Hurricane Season?”

Ryan Seidemann is the Section Chief of the Lands & Natural Resources Section at the Louisiana Department of Justice. Ryan holds a B.A. in anthropology from Florida State University and an M.A. in anthropology and two law degrees from Louisiana State University. Ryan is also an adjunct professor of law at Southern University’s Law Center. Ryan has authored more than 60 publications in the areas of environmental, natural resources, land use, and disaster law as well as in archaeology and cemetery studies.

Email: SeidemannR@ag.state.la.us