Clarify duties of APSC

The responsibilities of the Academic Procedures and Standards Committee (APSC) include formulating, studying, reviewing, and making pertinent recommendations on academic rules, regulations, policies, and procedures. The primary duties of this committee relate to the following areas although other issues may be addressed as needed/assigned by the Faculty Senate:

(1) Admission, dismissal, withdrawal, and readmissions including criteria for academic standing and academic deficiency
(2) Academic appeals, waivers for course or program prerequisites
(3) Academic advisement, scheduling of classes, registration, and academic calendar
(4) Course and program standards linked to level of coursework
(5) Degree requirements regarding in-major coursework
(6) Policies for instructional faculty in conducting classes, seminars, examinations, students' research, and student evaluations, including distance education and non-traditional instructional formats
Task 2

- Define characteristics of course levels (e.g., 1000 vs. 3000; 5000 vs. 6000)
  - Bill Sharpton working on draft
  - APSC will meet to review on 1/21?
  - Should align with learning/target outcomes developed for academic programs
Task 3

- Clarify degree reqs for In-major coursework
  - Need more consistency across colleges
  - What % of in-major courses should be completed at UNO?
- Currently no university-wide standard
