

#UNOserves

SHOW THE WORLD THAT UNO SERVES! As part of the university's "Week of Excellence" (November 8-12), all UNO students, faculty, staff and alumni are asked to commit to at least two hours of volunteer service with the organization(s) of their choice on Saturday, November 10. While you're at it, post your experiences on your Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc., accounts using the hash tag #UNOserves! Also, get your posts on the official UNO Facebook and Twitter accounts. Here's how:

1. Volunteer!

3. Email to pr@uno.edu.

2. Take a picture and/or let us know what you're doing!

4. Show the world #UNOserves!
