DEFINITIONS

1. Directory Information – student name, address (local and permanent), college issued e-mail address, telephone number (local and permanent), major, University of New Orleans attendance dates, University of New Orleans college in which student was enrolled, University of New Orleans degrees earned (with dates), weight and height for members of athletic teams, honors and awards, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, the most recent educational agency or institution attended by the student, and hours completed.

2. Education Records – all records, in any tangible format, including print, electronic, visual, imaged or other media, maintained by the University and directly related to currently or formerly enrolled students.

3. Legitimate Educational Interest – a School Official performing a task that is specified in his or her position description or by contractual agreement; a School Official performing a task related to a student’s education; or a School Official performing a task related to the discipline of a student.

4. School Official is a person employed by the University in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support position, or a person employed by, or under contract to, the University to perform special task, such as an attorney or auditor.

5. Eligible Student – a person currently or formerly enrolled at the University of New Orleans.
GENERAL POLICY

It is the policy of the University of New Orleans to protect the privacy of student education records and to ensure that eligible students are afforded access to student education records as provided under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. §1232g; 34 C.F.R. Part 99), and applicable University of Louisiana System Policy and Procedure Memorandum S-II.-4 (Accessibility to Students' Educational Records). The parents of student declared as dependent for tax purposes, as provided in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code, are afforded the same rights as eligible students under this policy.

STUDENT RIGHTS UNDER FERPA

1. Right to Review and Inspect. FERPA gives eligible students certain rights with respect to student education records. Students have the right to inspect and review their education records. The University is not required to provide copies of records, unless student is unable to review the records on campus. The University may charge a fee for copies.

2. Restricted Records. Students are not entitled to review:
   a. Financial information submitted by parents.
   b. Confidential letters and statements of recommendation to which the student has waived his or her right of access and that are related to the student’s admission, application for employment or job placement, or receipt of honors.
   c. Education records containing information about more than one student, however, in such cases the institution must permit access to that part of the record which pertains only to the inquiring student.

3. Disclosure of Student Information. In most cases, the University will not release information from an education record without the student’s written permission. However, in accordance with FERPA, the University may disclose student records without consent to the following:
   a. School Officials with legitimate educational interest.
   b. Other schools to which a student is transferring. Request must be submitted by the student.
   c. Specified officials for audit or evaluation purposes.
   d. Appropriate parties in connection with financial aid to a student.
   e. Organizations conducting certain studies for or on behalf of the school.
   f. Accrediting organizations.
   g. To comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena.
   h. Appropriate officials in cases of health and safety emergencies.
i. State and local authorities, within a juvenile justice system, pursuant to specific State law.

4. Directory Information. The University at its discretion, may provide Directory Information in accordance with the provisions of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, to include: student name, address (local and permanent), college issued e-mail address, telephone number (local and permanent), major, University of New Orleans attendance dates, University of New Orleans college in which student was enrolled, University of New Orleans degrees earned (with dates), weight and height for members of athletic teams, honors and awards, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, the most recent educational agency or institution attended by the student, and hours completed.

5. Correction of Student Record. An eligible student who believes that an education record contain information that is inaccurate or misleading, or is otherwise in violation of their privacy rights, may request that the University official with primary responsibility amend the record(s). The procedure for seeking correction of a student education record is set forth below. Supporting documents need to be provided in order to make any correction.

6. Posting of Test Scores and/or Course Grades. The public posting of test scores and course grades is strictly prohibited. Student work, including, but not limited to examination papers, homework, essays or other written submissions should never be left unattended.

PARENTAL RIGHTS

Absent presentation of a valid court order establishing otherwise, either parent of a student who is declared as dependent for tax purposes, as defined in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code, may exercise the rights provided under this policy. In addition to the procedures set forth herein, the parents of a dependent child must provide documentation to verify the dependent status of the child whose records are sought.

RELATED PROCEDURES

Request to Review Student Records. Eligible students may inspect and review their education records by submitting a written request to the Office of the Registrar. All University of New Orleans documents are retained according to the university retention policy and may not be available for review. The request should identify as precisely as possible the record(s) that the student wishes to inspect. The Registrar’s Office will make arrangements for access and notify the requester of the time and place where the records may be inspected in person. Copies may be provided at the student’s expense. If the student is unable to review documents in person, then a notarized request needs to be submitted verifying the address where the copies need to be sent.

Requesting Correction of Student Records. An eligible student who believes that his or her education records contain information that is inaccurate or misleading, or is otherwise in violation of their privacy rights, may request that the record be amended. In making the request, the student should identify the part of the record he/she wants changed and specify why he/she believes it is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of his or her privacy or other rights. Supporting documentation needs to be provided to verify the need for the correction.
If the official concurs with the request, the record will be amended. If the official does not concur, the University will notify the student of his or her right to a hearing to challenge the information believed to be inaccurate or misleading.

Requests for a hearing must be made in writing to the Office of Academic Affairs. Within forty-five days of the request, the student will be notified of the time and place of the hearing, which will be conducted by a disinterested University official appointed by the Office of Academic Affairs. The hearing, and any subsequent actions regarding the education records at issue will be conducted in accordance with FERPA guidelines.

Retention of Requests. The University will maintain a record of all requests for and/or disclosure of personally identifiable information from a student's education records. The records of request, whether granted or not, shall include the names and addresses of the person(s) who requested the information and their legitimate interests in the information. Records of requests and disclosures do not have to be maintained for:

a. Requests made by students for their own use.

b. Disclosures made with the written consent of the students.

c. Disclosures made to school officials under the conditions that allowed such disclosures.

d. Disclosures made to a party seeking directory information.
