A Bill

This is a bill to allocate $4,000 from the Senate Operating Account to assist the Department of Philosophy with the honorarium costs for the 7 visiting guests who will participate in public lectures, panel discussions, and seminars for the Alexis de Tocqueville Project in Law, Liberty, and Morality.

Whereas, the Tocqueville Project is a subsidiary of the Department of Philosophy;

Whereas, the Tocqueville Project is necessary to the UNO community because it is a great opportunity for UNO students to interact with many of our country’s top scholars in ethics, political philosophy, economics, and public policy;

Whereas, the Tocqueville Project in Law, Liberty, and Morality has garnered national attention and improved the image of UNO at large.

Whereas, the Tocqueville Project in Law, Liberty, and Morality has proven to be a successful each semester the Senate has provided funding to it.

Whereas, the Senate’s funding in the past has allowed them to raise additional funding, with the project always requesting less money each semester, or putting on additional events for the same amount of money.

Whereas, the continued support of this project shows the Student Government’s commitment to academic excellence.

Whereas, the Tocqueville Project will host 13 public events (public lectures, panel discussions, and academic seminars) in Spring 2015.

Whereas, All persons from UNO, the New Orleans Community, and Elsewhere are invited to attend all events included.

Whereas, the flexibility to change the amount honorarium funding for the listed speakers as long as we do not exceed the total amount.
