- Nischal Adhikari, College of Business Administration, Senate

    - Lee: Can you repeat that?
    - Adhikari: repeated his introduction
    - Lee: What is your motivation factor for joining SG? Is there one specific cause or an overall motivation?
    - Adhikari: I like to be in discussions, I like to work in groups, and I have a special interest in politics so I feel this is the place to be.

- Nicole L. Boover, College of Science, Senate

She wants to do this because she is in that department every day and Violet asked her to do it. She can give valid input about what needs to happen in the science department.
    - Aucoin: What are you studying?
    - Boover: I am a double major in biology and chemistry. I’m a junior.
      - With a roll call of 24 yes, 2 no, 0 abstentions, she is appointed.

    - Override.
    - Hollis: Thought there was no real cap of committees you can be in.
    - Reyes: Correct.
      - With a roll call vote of 25 yes, 3 no, 2 abstentions, objection is overridden.
  - Walsh: Point of Order: The committee head can approve or disapprove of committee members.
  - Lee: Point of Inquiry: Is it okay that President Teagle waved him down to tell him that?
  - Reyes: It’s the duty of Parliamentarian to give the information. The Point of Order was made by Parliamentarian. I don’t see a problem with it. Objection is by the committee head so your motion is objected.
  - Christopher: When was DiMaggio made chair?
  - Reyes: When there was no members of the Student Affairs committee.
- LaBourde, Technology committee
  - Appointed.
- Boover, Student Affairs
  - Appointed.
- Talbert, Beautification
  - Appointed.

Communications and Announcement
- Senators
  - Lee: My department is having a Halloween party on Friday at 12:30. It’s open to everyone. We’d like people there if you can spread the word. There will be food, games, and a costume contest.
    - Aucoin: Where is it?
    - Lee: It’ll be in the chemistry tutor center.
- Non-Senators
  - Le: I’m a member of Nippon. On Thursday at 6:30 they will be hosting an event called Japanese Wonderland. They will have different activities and a silent auction. They will also have a shop and a costume contest. The winner will get a Japanese sweet basket prize.
- Presiding Officer Communications and Announcements
  - I want to give a reminder to maintain order. We are all college students, not members of congress or parliament. It’s best to treat each other with respect while asserting your point and views. We need to do better with respecting each other. A lot of us have relationships with each other outside of the chamber and there’s no reason to come in and act belligerent. We still have the parliamentary procedure documents that LeeAnne made for us. It clearly outlines things to know in procedure. Prior to moving into New Business I will table my committee expansion act until further notice. The key roles in the senate are to preserve order in senate. It’s at my discretion when someone is out of order and will not hesitate to use that power. I will recognize senators who seek the floor in debate. This isn’t time to launch personal attacks to one another. I decide Points of Order. This senate is to appoint all new legislative instruments to the appropriate committees. It’s in law and writing, if want to change it, amend it. We’ve traditionally been tabling it to committees in the past few weeks and it’s working well. I recognize privileged motions.

- President Pro Tempore and Committee Reports
  - President Pro Tempore
  - Committee Reports
    - Hollis: Governance: We were tabled the Voter Transparency Bill. I talked to Trahan about the time constraints and she didn’t want the bill blaming her for conditions that outside of her control. In response about if there is a demand for the service or if it’s a waste of time, we believe it will engage and stimulate demand. The service is a necessary in an open and democratic society. Other universities adopted similar manners. DiMaggio and others saw flaw in this bill and left last week causing us not to meet quorum.
    - DiMaggio: Student Affairs: Schexnayder and I met with Amy King Friday. She does not support the sexual assault bill at all. She believes the bill takes victims’ rights. She believes it will lead to more victims to be quiet and less willing to talk about the harassment. She also went as far as why shouldn’t it be any crime? If we tell a teacher we got mugged, they need to report that. Why stop at sexual harassment? Instead of enforcing a policy, we should advocate different avenues of awareness. She said even NOPD is poor with it. They are not quick enough for sexual harassment calls. She couldn’t come in, she’s at take back the night at Dillard. She wants to ask you look at the pledge. The It’s on Us pledge. It’s to create an environment that sexual assault is preventable. She said we should create an educational program for it. To force a survivor to report to police is not supporting a survivor. This decision shouldn’t be taken away from someone who has had so much taken away already. The victims’ rights advocates those who are in the role to support the survivor. We should not force someone to report it.
    - Time extended.
    - They can help him or her life. It’s an under-reported crime. 60% left unreported. The rapist will never spend a day in prison. Only about 3% of rapist will spend a day in prison. Some reasons that people don’t report assault is because of shame or embarrassment or to be humiliated or for fear of other’s perception. Schexnayder contacted the person in UNOPD who is supposed to deal with this and they still haven’t gotten back to him. It will be taking the victims’ rights.

This is from the director who deals with this every day.
  - Christopher: Point of Inquiry: Did the committee meet quorum?
  - Reyes: There was not quorum.
- Christopher: Then how is that a report?
- LeeAnne: The law states that the senate conducts that information
- Christopher: Was quorum met, and is that a report?
- Walsh: Quorum is established at 3 members.
- Reyes: So quorum was not met, it’s not officially a report.
- Lee: I too talked to Amy King. She emphasized the fact that we are not in government matters. It needs to be addressed, but as SG, we should represent the student populous. We are here to set things in place, not to debate policy. It’s a great opening, but we’re not here to discuss technicality.
- Teagle: Point of Information: Quorum only need to be met for committee meetings. This report is for all committee activity. In section 9 it says the committee reports shall report all activities. That would still be an applicable report.
- Reyes: The report by DiMaggio and other senators in Student Affairs, was allowed and given.
- Christopher: The Chair is to be approved by the committee. I understand he needs to give reports regardless.
- Walsh: He was an appointee of the senate, not the committee.
- Reyes: He was appointed by senate, there were no members of the committee to approve him.
- Teagle: If a committee falls below 4 members. It should be addressed from the senate as a whole.
- Aucoin: The technology has an open seat if anyone is interested.

- Executive Reports, Judicial Reports, Advisor Reports
  - President
    - It’s good to see so many senators in the chamber. First thing to report is that I’m vetoing B.F14J013, the fee transparency bill. It’s important for you to realize that I’m not against transparency. There should not be a creation of law before there is a referendum of the students. Out of the senate’s power to mandate a SG officer to report on fees outside of SG. It’s beyond the scope of the senate to dictate to the president’s office. I was in the hospital for the last month. Any meetings I usually have with the President and Kemker, I had to do catch up on. So, I’ve been in meetings over the last 4 days. The Vice President of SA and the Director of Athletics are talking about creating a new sports environment. We are required by NCAA that whatever sport we add, we have to do it in opposite sex as well. They are in the very beginning stage of discussion right now. Alumni week coming up. They are having a past presidents’ luncheon. It will be for the past presidents of the school, alumni and SG to come together. They are trying to encourage alums that there’s a flow of information and to encourage donations. On November 5th the College of Education will have a hall of fame inauguration to recognize outstanding alumni. There will be Jazz on Wednesday. The musician will be a well-known alumni. They will be recognizing Sheriff Normal at a banquet in the City Park Arbor room. It’s $60 a pop to go. There will be a faculty/staff/alumni luncheon to recognize students who went to school here and stayed with us to work. The college of engineering will hold their alumni event on November 8th and the same for Fine Arts alumni. There are post cards on the table outside of the SG office, if you are interested.

- Carter: What sports are they adding?
- Teagle: That’s still up for debate. They want to create anchors to anchor the entire student life around. We have great teams, but none of them lend themselves to New Orleans. This is not just for the students, but New Orleans as a whole. We need to energize New Orleans for UNO. LSU is supported by the community because they energize the community; we need to do the same.
- Cormier: Can I get a copy of the veto?
- Teagle: Yes, I have to submit it to the Vice President, but he can pass it along.
- Reyes: After a bill is vetoed, the senate has a week to motion for an override of the veto. So you can either do that this week or next.
- Le: I’m very sad to hear that the transparency bill was vetoed.
- Time extended.
- Reyes: I recommend you to talk to your senators and tell them your concerns then let them be addressed by privileged speakers.
- Diez: How can we go about having transparency privileged to students? What’s the main problem?
- I believe that the current formation is against Louisiana law. Louisiana law requires the fees shouldn’t be as jumbled as they are. I don’t mind a single thing about asking where these fees go. I would like to ask the Office of Business Affairs to report semester reports of where the fees go. All of the referendums before the UL system are bundled together. I have no problem with having a referendum to ask them to unjumble everything. Everything else in bill is wrong. The referendum itself is good.
- Diez: Didn’t the bill itself have a call for a referendum?
- Reyes: Yes, but laws were also being introduced.
- Teagle: It required action of treasurer and action of the president.
- Motion for extension of time
  - Objection
  - Override
    - Did not pass.

○ Treasurer
  - No report.
  - Walsh: Point of Order: Doesn’t the Treasurer have to report weekly?
  - Collado: Nothing changed from last week, you didn’t spend any money.

○ Secretary of State
Retreat will be a staycation. We will have all night to do anything we need to get done. You can go home if don’t want to stay. It will be January 9-10. All new senators from the election and returning senators will be able to go. It will be the last weekend right before break that way any changes we want we will have the following Tuesday to present that. We will have some staff development to stop the tension in the room. We will also have a strengths quest training so we need your top 5 strengths if you’ve taken it before. If you haven’t, SG bought Strength Quest codes, so we have codes that you can use. The notice of candidacy for the elections ends November 12th at 4:30 pm. We had our mandatory meeting, if you didn’t go, you will have to make it up. The initial expenditure report is due on the 19th. The elections will be the 20th and 21st. The final expenditure report is due on the 24th at 8:00 am. We will have the initial announcement on the 25th, and then if there are no official complaints, the final announcement will be the 26th. For senate seats: College of Engineering is full, College of Education has 2 open seats, IDS has 1 open spot, College of Liberal Arts is full, College of Business Administration has 3 open seats, College of Science is full. I also want senators to be aware that those who have missed too many meetings will be notified and will have to submit an excuse. We have a few things to adjust for tardy senators, but a lot of you have been missing or proxying. After 2 missed meetings, I need to get excuses in. Proxies count as a half an absence. Send me an email of your excuses. Committee seats: The Budget has 3 spots that are to be appointed by the president, Public Safety has the chair and 4 seats open, Tech has 1 seat open, RAPP has the chair and 4 open seats. I understand you want to go and fill those seats, but remember they are also open to 2 current students. The chairs need to reach out with students outside of SG. A lot of committees are filled with the same people. Others can sit if they are interested. Take back the night was here last night, tonight it’s at Dillard, tomorrow it’s at Loyola. I’ll have fliers in the back. It raises awareness of sexual assault.

- Aucoin: Attendance is per semester?
- Trahan: Yes.
- Aucoin: Isn’t it 3?
- Trahan: If it’s 3, my bad, but will go over it again and check.
- ElMansura: What about if missed, but don’t have slip or anything? I missed for job interviews.
- Trahan: Email them and get proof.
- Aucoin: When will you tell us about our attendance?
- Trahan: I will get you the emails this week.
- Collado: Is there a policy in place about what’s an acceptable excuse or not?
- Trahan: There’s no policy. I can’t say if it’s acceptable or not. If you’re missing every week for your job, that’s not excused. I need a form of excuse. I will take it up with LeeAnne if it’s questionable. I will let you know if it’s not.
Reyes: Point of Information: It says a senator will automatically forfeit if they cease to be enrolled in school. They may lose their seat after 2 absences. It’s unclear of who makes that decision. Since the Secretary of State handles the elections and all, it’s assumed that it goes to her. This needs to be amended and made clear.

Judicial
- On October 3rd we got a request from a UNO student about Reyes’ behavior at a university function and his ability to uphold SG’s mission. At our Supreme Court meeting, we conducted interviews and the court recommends that SG review it’s constitution and look at decorum about being a member of student government. Right now, it only defines for behaviors in meetings. There’s no standard upon officers when representing the student body outside of meetings. This is out of our jurisdiction. Defining this will help the SG.
  - Walsh: Why weren’t we alerted that he was under investigation?
  - Teagle: They have to meet within 7 days of the complaint. Until they reach a decision, they don’t have to give a report. There’s no requirement for that.
  - Walsh: I understand, but we had no idea this was going on.
  - Teagle: Part of that is on me. I facilitated in the investigation. They can’t say anything to protect the integrity of the officer. It would hover over him and his office until it was time for them to reach decision. It would have been a detriment to the Vice President.
  - Talbert: Are we allowed to know what incident or any details?
  - Miner: It was regarding the officer’s behavior at a University function, being disrespectful to another person.
  - Walsh: You want to recommend us to look at the constitution of behavior. This is very vague and I don’t understand.
  - Miner: The recommendation is based on the officer’s behavior that was incriminating to him and to the UNO student body. It’s just a recommendation that SG defines some form of behavior outside of meetings.
  - Sipe: Point of info: The complaint is on file and is posted online. Alyssa can share it all.
  - Cormier: Was this at a UNO event or outside?
  - Miner: The event was hosted by a UNO organization outside of campus.

Advisors
- We have important hiring going on. The College of Engineering is looking for their Dean and we are searching for a Provost. All students are invited to give input. Tomorrow at 2:00 there will be an Open Forum. One will be in here for the College of Engineering at 3:00. The one for the Provost will be in Kirschman 129. Next Wednesday at 3:00 in this room for the Dean for the College of Engineering. For the sexual assault bill, I advise talking with counseling services. Other campuses have victim counseling. To have a safe space is common. There are victim advocates. Loyola is closest university who has that program. If you’d I’d love to see that come from SG. I’d love to work with you on that. The election timeline is posted, if you have questions, it’s online and in the window in the office. I will be out of the office from Friday – Wednesday. I will not be at the next meeting. I will have limited access to e-mailing while gone.

- Walsh: Who will fill in for you?
- Sipe: Either LaJana or Kemker.

Old Business

- B.F14J011 Sexual Assault Reporting Act
  - Motion to table indefinitely.
  - Passes.

- B.F14J012 Voting Transparency Act
  - DiMaggio: Have you spoken to the Secretary of State?
  - Hollis: Yes.
  - DiMaggio: What was said?
  - Hollis: We have an amendment that she was applicable to.
  - Teagle: Why would you choose to have this recorded by the Secretary of State to maintain?
  - Hollis: The original version of the bill called for it to be done by the clerk, then it was formulated that it wasn’t her duty. Then LeeAnne said it would be better for Secretary of State.
  - Walsh: I’m an advocate for transparency, but I don’t understand why you want to banish all secret ballot voting. This could be used against someone. It can be used behaviorally vindictively.
  - Lee: I think that we should be open and defend our vote if needed to, it’s our decision and what we stand for. I think everyone is of the maturity that this is business. If I have a problem with your voting, I should be able to stand and ask you about it. I hope that we still will respect each other after.
  - Christopher: This is just to call for a vote, afterwards it goes into the nitty gritty of it.
  - Teagle: To clarify my question, once again my question is that the senate doesn’t have power or authority to dictate to the executive branch to change function without an amendment. You can to offices and the senate, but you can’t change them to the executives. Will you amend the bill further to address that?
  - Hollis: Any specific amendment you would like?
  - Teagle: Any time you ask more of the Secretary of State, more than anything outlined in the constitution. Asking her to publish it is more than required for her office.
  - Lee: Isn’t that it the same? If she is to maintain the records, why not just publish it?
  - Parliamentarian: Wouldn’t powers that aren’t in the constitution fall to the senate?
  - Teagle: If it were real government, but our constitution is not set up that way.
Reyes: The point was to ask if there is part of the US constitution that’s not granted, it falls to the senate. If there’s no obstruction with the constitution, the law can exist.

Teagle: That’s for a federal government. There’s not secondary power in this government. They don’t have the power reserved. That doesn’t exist. The only power is from the Constitution.

- Motion for a 5 minute recess.

Call Back to Order

- 6:36pm

Roll Call

- With 21 senators present out of 33, we meet quorum.

Old Business Cont’d

- Reyes: It is unclear with the Secretary of State’s responsibilities in the Constitution. There’s different codes for different officers. There are specific codes that don’t line up with the Constitution. The Secretary of State will keep and make records. In the event that the bill is passed, the President can veto it. The senate is subject to override it by simple majority vote of senators present.

- Cormier: Since it is already is published in the office, you just want to publish it online?

- Christopher: Our goal to make it publicly available online. Also make it procedure to keep the record.

- Teagle: Would the authors or sponsors amend section A to have the internal action of the senate. The rest of bill is reasonable. The thing is that, why wouldn’t the senate have internal voting record to be maintained by the senate. Why would you want the executive branch to be involved? It makes more sense to have it internal. Especially because you have complained about executive being in your business too much already.

- Christopher: That’s already done by the parliamentarian and historian.

- Teagle: Why not have the presiding office have better records, or the clerk. Why not have it defined by the senate?

- Christopher: When you weren’t here that was the solution that was devised.

- Teagle: Would you be able to amend it?

- Christopher: No, because it’s the exact opposite of what we just had to do. I don’t mind it and the clerk said she’d be okay to do it.

- Aucoin: You keep bringing up the historian, do we have one?

- Reyes: It’s Walsh.

- Atienzar: I would like to say that I am pro-transparency. It’s important that senators have accountability. I don’t agree with social media being a means to distribute that information. Social media is a way to promote SG and events we sponsor. In the bill, it says Facebook and twitter are to show details as to the meetings and who votes for what. I don’t believe that’s appropriate. It is appropriate to have a link to the website.

- Lee: I appreciate that comment, but the reason I joined SG was that I saw inconsistencies within my department. It made me care about my department and my college. I think it would be a conversation starter. There’s a lot that is misinformed and misinterpreted. We are all students. What we’re fighting for is, my money. We pay for it and that’s my intentions.

- Talbert: I agree with it about being voters and representing people. Those people are technology inclined. If we don’t want it on the internet because it doesn’t make us look good, that’s not a reason not to post it. That’s more of a reason to put it online so they all see how they are representing their college. We are putting it on the internet for those on the internet.
- Walsh: I respectfully disagree. We should have it on social media. We don’t need it listed out, but a link to the website.
- Willis: That’s exactly what he just said.
- Walsh: I apologize.
- Amendment, Unanimous Consent to hear it.
  - Attached.
  - DiMaggio: What changed?
  - Hollis: The issue that the Secretary of State would submit the voting record on time, but the administration wouldn’t publish it on time, but this says as long as she sent it out that any delay would not come back on her.
    - With a roll call vote of 23 yes, 0 no, 0 abstentions, the amendment is attached.
  - Reese: In the bill students say they have repeatedly asked about the voting record, then you said no one asked. Secretary of State shouldn’t do it. And we should have secret ballots.
  - DiMaggio: I believe that secret ballots should not be banned. If someone doesn’t get in, they’ll know and be mad. I told students about bill and they said they still won’t look at the voting record. Students didn’t even know have a twitter. I don’t care if people see our votes. I just don’t see a point. Students don’t care. I don’t support this bill.
  - Johnson: Inquiry: If we vote on a new senator, is that record public?
  - Reyes: There is always a voting record recorded. They are not online. There’s a square of general vote count.
  - Johnson: When voting in the past, is that public?
  - Reyes: No.
  - Teagle: What’s being asked for is a law that exists. The attending record and voting record is supposed to be in the minutes.
  - Willis: Point of Information: It is in the minutes.
  - Teagle: It’s supposed to account for every senator.
  - Willis: It does, every senator is accounted by a number.
  - Teagle: That’s not accounting for every senator.
  - Willis: It doesn’t say that names need to be listed out, if you want that, then this needs to pass.
• Hernandez: I do agree with transparency. I don’t believe it should be on Facebook. It gives people targets in SG. This is a better way to target us. I think that encourages cyber bullying.

• Aucoin: I think its unnecessary redundancy. I don’t agree with it being on social media. We want people to go on out Facebook regularly. It would deter people.

• Lee: We all took seats here because we stand for something. I don’t think that you should be ashamed for what you vote for. I believe in something. I believe in my college. If someone is being aggressive, you need to report that. I don’t understand why we are cowering away from it. We want to fix problems. Social media is great way to publish that. I only became involved because my college was having a problem.

• Christopher: The itemized portion of the bill is what’s important. In a democracy, you have this transparency. For most representatives, after every vote and before, they post it. This is how and why they voted the way they did. That’s how you promote democracy. When you represent a student body you get criticism good and bad. When we bring things into the open, you will get responses.

• Motion to extend time.
  o Talbert: Point of Interest: Because of the 15 minutes, we got rid of the 3 minutes?
  o Reyes: After the debate, we have the principle sponsor and support ran out.
  o Motion passed.

• Aucoin: Your point is trying to solve problems, how will adding another law fix it? Its unnecessary redundancies.

• DiMaggio: There has been a Facebook post that shows how I voted on the Fee Bill, one student commented on it and I felt attacked. Not that that’s a bad thing. The debate should not happen online or outside, should happen in here. Not online, not outside, not at lunch, in here. That’s where voting should stay at.

• Teagle: Let me be clear, I’m not against transparency. I feel like this put it on the senate. The senate should make the record in the minutes. And by pushing it onto the Secretary of State is saying the senate is unwilling to address it and wants the execs to handle it for them.

• Dan: I’m for transparency, I don’t believe details should be on Facebook.

• Talbert: When it comes to debate of this bill, this doesn’t support debate online. If they’re against it and just because you feel attacked, it’s part of your job. If you are attacked that’s on them not bill. The past law can be interpreted by just number and not by name. Another concern about being attacked about secret ballot. If it’s your opinion, you should not be worried that people know that. If that person is against you and angry, that’s a separate issue than the bill. This just puts it on the internet, not debate, just activity.
• Diez: I support this bill, I’m on the governance committee, I had to temporarily resign because of personal reasons. We discussed many things, but if there’s an issue, this is an issue and needs to be done. This is to clarify how names should be listed. It encourages student involvement. It’s wrong to say students don’t care. They want to see what’s going on, and how we vote, and for students to debate that’s great, we want them to care.

• Cormier: If there’s already a law, is this void?

• Reyes: This is a way to define the law, to some it means one thing, and to others it’s another.

• Sipe: The secret ballot is for the vote of the Pro Tempore, every other time it’s happened it’s because the senate suspended rules and procedures to conduct one.
  o This requires a 2/3 vote and the president’s signature.
    ▪ With a roll call vote of 13 yes, 8 no, and 2 abstentions, it does not pass.
  o Christopher: Where is that?
  o Reyes: Code of Laws 100.1.

• New Business
  o B.F14J017 Kappa Sigma American Warrior Week Bill
    ▪ This bill is to allocate $996.14 to assist Kappa Sigma in Warrior Week between 12:00 - 2:00 the week of Nov. 10th – 14th. We will have a laser tag field and bunker for the event at the end of the week from Games to You. We’ll also have a mobile mountain rock climbing wall. And we’re asking for 300 wrist bands for students at the event. It’s a full week of events. The first event is the rock climbing wall. We’ll have a thank you banner to write thank you to service men and woman. Tuesday we’ll have a boot camp obstacle course race. It’ll simulate the same training they go through at boot camp. Thursday we have a car smash event to donate to the event. Friday is laser tag. None of the money raised goes to our chapter, nor nationals; it goes to military campaign for wounded warriors in recovery. I want to stress that while we’re presenting this. This is to help any veteran. We owe the men and women who serve our country a lot. We try our best to give back through these events. We tried to get sponsors and they covered a lot of the expenses. Now we’re asking for these small items from you. We can’t fund it all on our own.
      ▪ Aucoin: The rock climbing and laser tag is open to everyone, is there a fee?
      ▪ KS: For the rock wall, we will just ask for a donation. It’s just to stimulate donations. Same with laser tag. Recognizing the SG can’t charge for the events, we won’t charge for them, we’ll just ask for donations.
      ▪ Lee: Will you have donations for food or coats? Any other donations besides money?
Dan: That was the event I forgot. We are doing a care package drive. Sororities will be competing it in, but it’s open for anyone to give.

Lee: So it’s for deployed or veterans?
Dan: That would be for the deployed.
Lee: So the donations are for deployed and veterans?
Dan: Yes.

Cormier: Do you have a waiver for the events?
Dan: Yes, it’s in the bill.
Cormier: You say everyone is invited to the events, except on Saturday, why’s that?
Dan: There’s an event on Saturday, but because of legalities from our nationals, it can’t be open.
Carter: Have you started advertising?
Dan: No, its pending on you because without you we can’t do it.

- Tabled to finance.
- B.F14J014 Committee Expansion Act
  - Tabled until further notice.
- B.F14J015 Communicative and Fiduciary Responsibility Act
  - Motion to count quorum.
  - With roll call of 20 of 33 senators present, quorum is met.

- Open Forum
  - Hollis: Can we have the formation of my committee move to the head of business next week?
  - Reyes: Yes.
  - Payne: It aggravates me when people move stuff to leave early or when senators leave early. When we leave and don’t meet quorum, we can’t meet, it’s disrespectful.
  - Walsh: This is a time for choosing. Can be promoters or we can sit and let a document that has no legislative powers do what they want to do. We choose to allow people to say they can make committees just because or that it would give the chance to do something right. It’s inappropriate to not debate issues. I would like to go with Hollis next week. Go directly to nominations and appointments directly on that.

- Teagle: You say people shouldn’t move things to leave early, but the senate moves its own business up just to be convenient. People are here awaiting that aren’t in the senate. Don’t change business for ourselves and not for others. Amy King asked this to be forwarded. There a march October 29th at the Loyola horseshoe. This is a great opportunity for members of SG to let people be known of where they stand on the issue of sexual assault. I have flyers available.

- DiMaggio: The reason we moved it is because the nominee waited over 3 hours last meeting and it would be disrespectful again when they should’ve been in last week. For senators to be called out when they were the last ones to leave is rude, because there’s senators who didn’t show up or left before me as well. For sponsors of sexual harassment bill, can you explain why you tabled it?

- Lee: I would like it to be known it doesn’t matter when you left. We all have things to do you knew when you walk in you have a commitment. Everyone has their own agenda of why they have to wait. They’re coming to ask for money, they can wait. If we don’t want them to wait, we need to be more efficient. We need to work together and listen to one another.

- Hollis: My apologies to DiMaggio that section in my report was not of contempt and just mild aggravation, I saw him and other newbies that I didn’t want to call out.

- Sipe: The person who moved bill to front, they had to leave because they have limited visitation for someone in the hospital and don’t have to share that. Fall seat senators, you lose your seats on Dec. 1st.

- Walsh: If you want perfect example of how bad our constitution, look at page 17 of 16.

- McCloud: The Tocqueville project is having a major talk on Nov 5th. From 6:00 – 7:30 in room 236. It’s about family values in the age of autonomy. He asked me to give you flyers to put up in places where people will be interested.

- Cormier: To be more efficient, don’t elaborate on questions. Just get straight to the point. We should have time limit on questions.

- Hollis: I am fully intending to getting a constitutional committee formed would like any senators to join, with your permission. This will be in New Business. I’m easy to work with.

- Payne: Following meetings, fill out proxy form, just in case. Be respectful.

- Walsh: You don’t need to ask his permission, it comes from us.

- Lee: There will be a Halloween party at the Chemistry building.
  - Motion for adjournment.
  - Objection.

- Teagle: You don’t need the senate to change the constitution, you just need 10% of the student body. For the new Constitution, just submit it as referendum. Everyone agrees the constitution is bad; start fixing it. Several of us are pursuing in our own ways, it’ll be better to do it together.

- Adjournment
  - Meeting was adjourned at 7:56 pm.
