WELCOME LETTER

Dear Privateers,

Thank you for your interest in participating in this year’s Homecoming! I am honored to organize such an important week for our wonderful university. This is the week that all Privateers from all organizations, clubs, teams, and colleges can come together and support our UNO Privateers as the women’s and men’s basketball teams compete in this double header. The first game will take place at The UNO Lakefront Arena at 4:00PM on February 4, 2017. We strongly encourage tremendous school spirit and creativity throughout the week leading up to game night.

This year’s Homecoming theme is Let the Good Times Roll! We are excited to give you a Homecoming that’s centered around the New Orleans culture and Mardi Gras festivities!

This year’s Homecoming Court candidates will need to turn in their form by Monday, November 28, 2016 at NOON. Personal applications will be given to each candidate upon nomination. All King and Queen Candidates will be reviewed by The Homecoming Committee via these applications, due by Friday, December 2, 2016 at NOON. Teams and Organizations without court nominees will have until Tuesday, January 17, 2017 at 4:00PM to turn in their packets.

If you have any questions regarding Homecoming Week after reading this packet, please feel free to contact SAC at (504) 280-7081.

Good Luck, Privateers!

HOMECOMING COMPETITION INFORMATION

Forming a Team:

Organizations may compete individually or they may join forces to form a team. This must be specified in the packet your team files and you must specify your team name. Any group of five (5) or more students can form a team even without an official organization and must create an official team name.

How to Earn Points:

There are three (3) ways to earn points during Homecoming Week: attendance, competition, and spirit. Each of the three is described below.

Attendance Point Rules:

Every event is an opportunity to win attendance points. Just by participating, you earn points for your team. To earn these points, every member of your team in attendance must check in at the SAC Homecoming Check-In Table located at each event. To sign in, you must show your student ID to the SAC member working at the table and specify which team you are representing.

In order to account for organizations or teams with fewer numbers than others, we will divide teams into tiers based on the number of members on the team. Tiers will be determined once all teams have been registered.

Spirit Point Rules:

Every event presents the opportunity to win spirit points. By showing your UNO spirit, you can win up to 5 points at most events for your team. Points can be deducted, however, for unsportsmanlike conduct and bad attitudes, so keep it positive! Here are some ideas to increase your spirit points:

- Chant cheers and be supportive of our UNO basketball teams
- Be positive and supportive of all events and people involved in Homecoming Week
- Use your creativity to embrace the theme of Let the good times roll!
- HAVE FUN!

*It is very important during Homecoming to show our support for UNO and the UNO Basketball team. Therefore, spirit points for the game will be worth 25 points. In order to get the most points, you should really show your school spirit through your attire, cheering, and attitude!!
Competition Point Rules:

Competition points are awarded based on how teams place in the different competition events throughout the week. Every competition event will offer your team the possibility to earn points. First place will be awarded 15 points, second place will win 10 points, and third place will win 5 points. Each of the competitions has different rules that will be detailed in each individual description in the “Non-Event Competitions” and “Events” sections of the packet (pages 7-11).

Other Rules:

If one of the members on your team is on the Homecoming Court, your team will be awarded 5 points. King and Queen will win 15 points for their team. More information on Homecoming Court is listed further into this packet.

If any of the rules for an event or competition are broken, your team will be disqualified and will not receive any points for that event. That includes attendance, spirit, and competition points, so it is important to be mindful of the rules. To ensure this packet has been read thoroughly, five points will be added to any team if the following words are said to me (Shelby Wall) at any ONE Homecoming Event: “I’m UNO Proud.”

In the event of a tie, the Student Activities Council Executive Board will decide the winner. The decision will be based on which of the teams contributed the most to Homecoming with enthusiasm, and any other ways considered significant. All judging decisions are FINAL.

The announcement of Homecoming King and Queen will be announced following the end of the women’s basketball game and the winning teams of each tier will be announced during halftime of the men’s basketball game.
NON-EVENT COMPETITIONS

Decorating Buildings
Must be submitted by 11:59pm on Sunday, January 29th

Teams will receive participation points for decorating each building. SAC will provide spray paint for use on the grass only (in the Quad), some chalk, and signs. You may pick these items up from the Office of Student Involvement and Leadership on Friday, January 26th, to use over the weekend. Only water-soluble chalk may be used on the sidewalks. Things to write in chalk are UNO spirited messages like “Go UNO!”, “Let’s Go Privateers!”, or New Orleans themed etc. Using this event to promote your organization will result in receiving fewer points. Because we are allowing your team to decorate over the weekend, we ask that your team send SAC a photo of your finished decorations by 11:59pm on Sunday, January 29th.

Awkward Family Photo Contest
Must be submitted by 11:59pm on Sunday, January 24th

How close are you and with your team members? This competition really puts teams to the test! Gather any number of members of your organization or team and pose for an “awkward family photo” that will make anyone feel uncomfortable. Be creative and make people laugh! SAC will post it on an event page and your team will get points based on the number of “likes” the photo gets, but only the “likes” on the photo posted by SAC will count. This photo should be submitted by 11:59pm on Sunday, January 29th.

It is important to keep this photo G-Rated! Remember that it will be public on social media!

Homecoming Banner Competition
Design must be submitted by 11:59pm on Sunday, January 29th
Must be submitted by 4:30PM on Thursday, February 2nd to UC 222

We are going to show the team our support at the game with Homecoming Banners! The planned design of your banner should be turned in before Homecoming Week. No banners will be hung at the game if they are not approved by SAC. Make sure your team name is on the banner and entails the Basketball game. Banners may not exceed 3 feet in height and 6 feet in length. There can be no glitter on the banners! Banners will be judged on creativity, adherence to this year’s theme, and overall appearance. These banners will be hung in the game stadium prior to the Homecoming Game. The design for the banner must be sent in early, by 11:59pm on Sunday, January 29th and banners must be submitted by 4:00PM on Thursday, February 2nd to UC 222.
