Industry Survey

Name: _____

Company: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email:

General Questions

Have you hired UNO Electrical Engineering graduates in the past? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Approximately how many? _____

From what graduation years? (approximately) _____

Based on your experience with UNO EE graduates, what are the strengths and what are the areas where improvement is needed with respect to their academic background? _____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

How do UNO EE graduates compare to graduates from other schools with which you have experience? _____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Program Specific Questions

Please place marks in the columns at right which reflect your opinion.

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
The need for Computer Engineers has increased in your company in the last few years.
If UNO offered a degree in Electrical Engineering with a Computer Engineering option, your company would be more likely to hire more UNO graduates.
UNO should continue to require Electric Power, Electric Machinery, and Controls (3 courses) of all Electrical Engineering option graduates.
We should require all Electrical Engineering option students to take other courses which are not currently required. Which ones? _____ _____ _____ _____ _____

Mission and Objectives Specific Questions

Please place marks in the columns at right which reflect your opinion.

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
UNO EE graduates are sufficiently prepared to solve electrical engineering problems.
UNO EE graduates are able to communicate effectively.
UNO EE graduates have an ability to work effectively individually and within teams.
UNO EE graduates have received a broad education which includes an understanding of the impact of Electrical Engineering on society, and the ethical responsibility of electrical engineers.
UNO EE graduates are proficient in the use of modern engineering techniques and tools, especially with regard to the use of computers.

Please attach any additional comments that you would like to make.