GENERAL POLICY

The University of New Orleans is an equal opportunity employer. The University actively promotes equal opportunity for all prospective and current students and employees.

PROCEDURE

The University will not discriminate against any individual on the basis of race; sex; color; national origin; religion; citizenship; sexual orientation; age; veteran status; disability; genetic information; gender identity; natural, protective, or cultural hairstyle; or any other protected characteristic or status.

This policy represents a commitment by the University of New Orleans to support the spirit and practice of equal opportunity beyond mere compliance with government regulations. All members of the UNO community are expected to conduct their daily University activities in accordance with the spirit and letter of this policy.
Jeannine O’Rourke, Ph.D.
