Spring Semester Holidays

Mardi Gras/ Spring Break	02/20-02/24
Good Friday Holiday	04/07-04/08

Withdrawal Policy

Students are responsible for initiating action to resign from the University (withdraw from all courses) or from a course on or before dates indicated in the current Important Dates calendar. Students who fail to resign by the published final date for such action will be retained on the class rolls even though they may be absent for the remainder of the semester and be graded as if they were in attendance. Failure to attend classes does not constitute a resignation. Check the dates and charges associated on the Registrar's website.

Incomplete Policy

A grade of I is assigned when, due to extenuating circumstances beyond their control, students engaged in passing course work are unable to complete class assignments within the time frame of the course's session. Before agreeing to the use of an incomplete grade in any course, an Incomplete Grade Agreement Form must be completed. Details regarding deadlines for completing the I grade, when the incomplete converts to a grade of F, and a link to the form are on the Academic Affairs website.

Repeat Policy

When a student is permitted to repeat a course for credit, the last grade earned shall be the one which determines course acceptability for degree credit. A student who has earned a C or better in a course may not repeat that course unless, (1) the catalog description indicates that the course may be repeated for credit, or (2) the student's Dean gives prior approval for documented extenuating circumstances.

Graduate Policies

Graduate policies often vary from undergraduate policies. To view the applicable policies for graduate students, see the Graduate Student Handbook.

Academic Dishonesty Policy

Information about academic conduct is in UNO's Academic Dishonesty Policy.

Safety Awareness Facts and Education

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender is a Civil Rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, etc. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can find the appropriate Title IX resources here.

UNO Counseling Services and UNO Cares

UNO offers care and support for students in any type of distress. Counseling Services assist students in addressing mental health concerns through assessment, short-term counseling, and career testing and counseling. First-year students often have unique concerns, and UNO Cares is designed to address those students' needs. Contact UNO Cares.

Emergency Procedures

Sign up for emergency notifications via text and/or email at E2Campus Notification. All emergency and safety procedures are explained at the Emergency Health and Safety Office.

Diversity at UNO

As the most diverse public university in the state, UNO maintains a Diversity Affairs division to support the university's efforts towards creating an environment of healthy respect, tolerance, and appreciation for all people, and the expression of intellectual point of view and personal lifestyle. The Office of Diversity Affairs promotes these values through a wide range of programming and activities.

Learning and Support Services

Help is within reach in the form of learning support services, including tutoring in writing and math and other supplemental instruction. Visit the Learning Resource Center in LIB 126.

Peer Study Support App

UNO partners with CircleIn to provide an all-in-one studying application that equips students with tools for academic success while earning points for rewards. Get the app from the CircleIn website, or download the iOS CircleIn App or Android CircleIn App directly.

Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity

UNO is an equal opportunity employer. The Human Resource Management department has more information on UNO's compliance with federal and state regulations regarding EEOC in its Policies and Resources website.

COVID-19 Health-Related Absences

Students should evaluate their health status regularly, refrain from coming to campus if they are ill, and seek appropriate medical attention for treatment of illness. Students should notify (email) their instructors about their absence as soon as possible, so that accommodations can be made. In the event of COVID-19 illness, students should also complete the Campus Reporting Form. Please note that medical excuse may be required at the discretion of the department chair and/or college dean. Students should stay informed of UNO's COVID-19 policies by using UNO's COVID-19 website.
