

THE GCC EXPERIENCE

A screenshot of a Zoom meeting interface. At the top, a green checkmark and a red recording icon are visible, with the text "Recording" next to it. In the top right corner, there is a "View" button with a grid icon. The main area of the screen is a 3x4 grid of 12 video thumbnails, each showing a different participant. Below each thumbnail is the participant's name and a small red icon indicating their audio status. The participants are: Irene Ziegler (she, her, hers), Jennifer Torres, Autumn (she/her), anika ofori, Nick Kleppinger, Misty Begnaud, Jaz, Phil LaConte, katherine, BLESSING FASHADE, Daniel Baez, and Anzhao He. At the bottom of the screen is a control bar with several icons and labels: "Mute" (with a microphone icon), "Stop Video" (with a video camera icon), "Security" (with a shield icon), "Participants" (with a group of people icon and the number "12"), "Polls" (with a bar chart icon), "Chat" (with a speech bubble icon), "Share Screen" (with a green screen icon), "Record" (with a circular arrow icon), "Reactions" (with a smiley face icon), and a red "Leave" button on the far right.

TESTIMONIALS

“After participating in this program I feel more confident in my abilities to communicate effectively with others and to overcome conflicts arising from differences.”

“I encourage everyone to participate in this program, learn about themselves and others, strengthen your ability to communicate with others, and become a more aware person and global citizen.”

“I loved hearing each student's insights. Working with our group was enlightening.”

“I am a teacher and I feel that the GCC supports the teaching of 21st century skills to students as well as faculty and staff. It also enhances the understanding of power and privilege, inequality, and cultural approaches to human behavior.”

“I learned that before I can put these new tools and skills to use, I need to be self-aware and very conscious of myself in order to rightly relate with others.”
