Fax 504-280-3975

healthservices@uno.edu

Per State legislated pre-matriculation immunization statutes, UNO requires new and returning students to:

- Complete and submit a proof of immunization compliance form to the Student Affairs Office prior to registration

OR

- Use your UNO email address (username@uno.edu) to complete the Immunization Waiver online

If you need immunizations, the Ochsner Health Services provide them for students who have been admitted to the university but have not paid fees yet or attended classes. (Applicable fees payable at the time of service.)

Registration

uno.edu/academics/grad/registration

Contact your admitting department for details on how to get advised. If you need a point of contact, locate your program on the list at the link above for information.

- Finding classes: University Catalog
- Listings of class schedules: Course Bulletin, available online on the Office of the Registrar.
Specific course information found in WebStar
- Getting advised: degree programs may require advising before registering or may restrict registration in certain courses
- Registering in WebSTAR: WebSTAR is the official student records system. Used for registration, withdrawals, grades, fees, etc.
- Moodle: online learning system found on the Current Students web page.

Privateer ID Cards

Computer Center 112

(504) 280-6286

access@uno.edu

uno.edu/it/id-cards

In addition to identifying you as a UNO student, your ID card allows you to

- Access the UNO Library, Computer Labs, Learning Resource Center and other academic resources
- Attend UNO Athletic Events at no cost
- Utilize a meal plan
- Access the UNO Recreation and Fitness Center
- Obtain discounts at movie theaters and other businesses around the city

How do I get my ID card?

- Visit the Key & Card Access Office ready to have your picture taken
- Bring a photo ID (driver's license, passport, etc.) and your student ID number

Student Parking Decal

uno.edu/upd/parking-services

- Parking decal required to park on campus outside of the pay parking lots
- Order and pay online in WebSTAR or in person at the Office of the Bursar
- Visit the Campus Police Office to retrieve decal: must bring vehicle registration, proof of insurance, and receipt of payment
- Parking rules and regulations are enforced 24 hours/day, 7 days/week
 - All student decals are valid from August 15th of one year to August 15th of the next year, regardless of the issue date
 - Student decals allow students to park in white lined spaces in the general parking lots which are shared lots for students, faculty and staff
 - Students with current parking decal may park in yellow lined spaces between 5:00 pm and 6:00 am M-F and all day on weekends

Residential Parking Decal

uno.edu/upd/parking-services

Residential parking decals for Pontchartrain Hall and Privateer Place are issued at no cost to residents. However, to park elsewhere on campus, residents must purchase a regular student decal. All decals are subject to Parking rules and regulations.

- Pontchartrain Hall decals expire per semester
- Residents of Pontchartrain Hall must park within the white lined spaces of the Residential Parking Area. Staff parking spaces are marked by signs and are reserved for personnel 24/7.
- Privateer Place decals are valid for the academic school year
- Residents of Privateer Place must park between white lined spaces in the parking area of the gated apartment complex located on Levee Road

THE UNIVERSITY of
NEW ORLEANS

What Does ODS Do?

Office of Disability Services | The University of New Orleans \(uno.edu\)

- Centralizes “verification” of a disability and determination of reasonable accommodations
- Produces alternative format course materials for students with disabilities (audio, Braille, electronic, large print) upon request
- Coordinates volunteer note takers/use of notetaking software
- Loans equipment for use by students
- Centralizes adaptive technology use/procurement
- Compliance office (ADA, Section 504 and 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973)

Syllabus/Access Statements

Approved wording:

It is University policy to provide, on a flexible and individualized basis, reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in course activities or to meet course requirements. Students with disabilities should contact the Office of Disability Services as well as their instructors to discuss their individual needs for accommodations.

There is no timeline for disclosing. We cannot set a deadline for submitting a request for accommodation to the institution.

The fact is that ours [people with disabilities] is the only minority you can join involuntarily, without warning, at any time—Nancy Mairs, author

DO YOU REQUIRE DISABILITY-RELATED CLASSROOM OR TESTING ACCOMMODATIONS?

If so, please follow these simple steps:

- 1 Notify Disability Services of your need(s) for classroom or testing accommodations.
- 2 Submit documentation from appropriate professional that verifies and recommends reasonable accommodations.
- 3 Meet with a staff member to discuss accommodations and receive your personalized Student Accommodation Agreement.
- 4 Complete Student Accommodation Agreement with professor(s) and return completed form(s) to the Office.

Student Accommodation Agreement

- One completed form for each class in which the student will need accommodations
- All approved accommodations noted and checked off
- Signature required from faculty member to agree or disagree with accommodations
- ODS may administer testing accommodations according to faculty member approval

STUDENT ACCOMMODATION AGREEMENT

Office of Student Accountability, Advocacy and Disability Services

The following are reasonable accommodations for Jane Doe, ID# 2112211:

Classroom Accommodations

- Consideration for absences
- Consideration for Breaks
- Use of Adaptive Technology
- Signing Interpreter
- Computer Assisted Interpreting
- Use of an assistive listening device
- Limited time extensions on assignments
- Volunteer note taker
- Recorded Lecture
- Selective Seating
- Enlarged Course/Classroom Materials
- Alternate Format course materials

Test/Quiz Accommodations

- Adaptive Technology/ Computer Based Testing
- Enlarged Test
- Use of Calculator—if the use of the calculator does not fundamentally alter the nature of the course/test.
- Distraction-Reduced Environment
- Extended Testing Time (x1.5)
- Extended Time (x2)
- Black Ink on White Paper
- Reader
- Oral Test
- Scribe
- Test in Audio Format
- Consideration for Misspellings

I agree to the provision of the above accommodations for the following course _____
(Department, course number, section number)

Instructor's Signature/Printed Name

Date

I do not agree to the provision of the above mentioned accommodation(s) mandated as outlined in Subpart E of Section 504. I have discussed my concerns with the Director of the Office of Disability Services, and we are unable to come to an agreement regarding the accommodation(s). I maintain and can substantiate that the provision of the accommodation(s) above pose a fundamental alteration to the nature of the course being taught. I wish to initiate appeals procedures.

Student Accountability

Student Accountability & Advocacy | The University of New Orleans \(uno.edu\)

Most frequently reported Code of Conduct violations:

- Academic Dishonesty
- Classroom Disruption
- Alcohol Policy Violations
- Drug Law Violations
- Parking Tickets
- Smoking Violations
- Offenses that are not addressed under Title IX

Academic Misconduct

- Cheating: The act of deception by which a student misrepresents mastery of information on an academic exercise. These acts can be either premeditated or not. Examples include, but are not limited to, copying or allowing someone else to copy from another student, unauthorized use of a textbook, electronic device, or other material during an examination; inappropriate and unauthorized collaboration during an academic exercise; unauthorized use or possession of specialty prepared materials, such as notes or formula lists, during an academic exercise.
- Plagiarism: The unacknowledged inclusion of someone else's actual words, ideas or data or the paraphrasing of someone else's words, ideas or data as if they were the student's own. All source material must be appropriately identified and cited according to the conventions for acknowledging source material. Students are responsible for learning these scholarly conventions; disregard of proper citation conventions can be considered plagiarism.
- Academic Misconduct: The actual or attempted tampering or misuse of academic records or materials such as transcripts and examinations. Examples include stealing, buying, or otherwise obtaining all or part of an unadministered test or academic exercise; selling or giving away or engaging in bribery to get all or part of an unadministered academic exercise or any information about it; changing or altering a grade book, test, or other official academic records of the University; entering a building or office without authorization for the purpose of changing a grade or tampering in any way with grades or examinations.
- Falsification/Fabrication: The intentional use of false information or the falsification of research, findings, personal or university documents with the intent to deceive. Examples include citing information not taken from the source indicated; listing sources in a bibliography not used in the academic exercise; inventing data or source information; submitting as one's own any academic exercise prepared totally or in part for/by another; taking a test for another student or permitting another student to take a test for oneself; submitting work previously used for credit in another course without express permission of the instructor; falsifying or misrepresenting oneself on resumes or other such documents or university related forms.
- Accessory To Acts of Academic Dishonesty: The act of facilitating, supporting, or conspiring with another student to commit or attempt to commit any form of academic dishonesty.

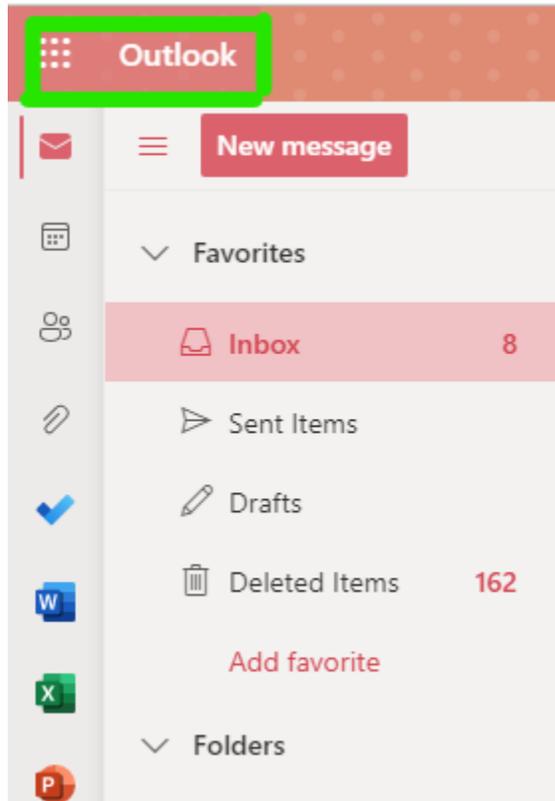

Filing an Incident Report

- Any individual may make a report of alleged Code of Conduct violations, academic dishonesty, Title IX incidents or other policy violations to the University.
- This can be done in a confidential manner.
- Depending on the level of information available about the incident or the individuals involved, the University's ability to respond to an anonymous report may be limited.
- Reporting can be made using the following link:

Campus Reporting Form Go back

The reporting form is not a 911 or Emergency Service.

Do not use this site to report events presenting an immediate threat to safety or security threat. If this is an emergency, please contact UNO Department of Safety and Security at 504-280-6666 or dial 911.

This form can be used to report a variety of incidents including:

- Student conduct violations
- Academic dishonesty
- Student Care Network referrals
- Title IX violations
- Hazing
- COVID exposure or positive test results

Let us know which type of incident you're reporting by selecting the report type. The questions on the form may change based on the type of report selected.

Definition: Sexual Harassment

Conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- (1) An employee of the University conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the University on an individual's participation in unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, whether verbal or physical;
- (2) Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the University's education program or activity; or
- (3) "Sexual assault" as defined in 20 U.S.C.1092(f)(6)(A)(v), "dating violence" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10), "domestic violence" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8), or "stalking" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30). Sexual harassment also includes sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. For purposes of this Policy, the various forms of prohibited Sexual Harassment are sometimes referred to as "Sexual Misconduct."

Scope of Policy

- Schools must respond when sexual harassment occurs in the school's education program or activity, against a person in the United States.
- Education program or activity includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the school exercised substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurred, and also includes any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by a postsecondary institution (such as a fraternity or sorority house).
- Reports about sexual misconduct that happened off campus or in a study abroad program, or for behavior that falls out of the scope of this definition, will be handled in a separate process.

What to do if a student comes to you:

If you are supervising students/student employees, or you are the instructor of record, you are considered a Mandated Reporter. You must let the person reporting to you know that you will have to report to the Title IX Coordinator or a Deputy Coordinator.

- Mandated Reporter: An employee of the University who is obligated by policy to share knowledge, notice and/or reports of sex discrimination, sexual misconduct, and/or retaliation on behalf of the University
- A student can discuss confidentially with a Confidential Resource (Counseling Services or the Women's Center)
- Ask if s/he is safe; does s/he need immediate medical or mental health care?
- Listen
- Provide her or him with information on resources for assistance
