Disability Services

[Office of Disability Services | The University of New Orleans
\(uno.edu\)](#)

Coordinator, Derek Bridges, dsbridge@uno.edu

What Does ODS Do?

- Centralized “verification” of a disability and determination of reasonable accommodations.
- Compliance office (ADA, Section 504 and 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973)
- Produces alternative format course materials for students with disabilities (audio, Braille, electronic, large print) upon request.
- Coordinates volunteer note takers/use of notetaking software.
- Loans some equipment for use by students.
- Centralized location for adaptive technology use/procurement.

Syllabus/Access Statements

The approved wording reads as follows:

- It is University policy to provide, on a flexible and individualized basis, reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in course activities or to meet course requirements. Students with disabilities should contact the Office of Disability Services as well as their instructors to discuss their individual needs for accommodations.

There is no timeline for disclosing. We cannot set a deadline for submitting a request for accommodation to the institution.

The fact is that ours [people with disabilities] is the only minority you can join involuntarily, without warning, at any time—Nancy Mairs, author

Student Accommodation Agreement

One form will be prepared for each class in which the student will need accommodations.

All approved accommodations will be noted and checked off.

A signature is needed in the top from faculty member, to agree or disagree with accommodations.

If ODS is to administer testing accommodations, the bottom of the form will need to be fully completed by the faculty member.

STUDENT ACCOMMODATION AGREEMENT

Office of Student Accountability, Advocacy and Disability Services

The following are reasonable accommodations for Jane Doe, ID# 2112211:

Classroom Accommodations

- Consideration for absences

Indicate any special instructions that apply to these tests:

Calculator Allowed _____ Notes Allowed _____ Open Book _____ Dictionary _____
Other (Specify): _____

If all exams are not pre-scheduled via the syllabus, a copy of this form must be used to schedule each individual test and final exam throughout the semester. Scheduling requests should be submitted a week prior to each test.

For on-line courses, students are expected to remind the instructor prior to the scheduled exam.

Signed forms must be returned to the office. A copy of the signed form will be emailed to both student and faculty member for record keeping purposes.

Student Accountability

Student Accountability & Advocacy | The University of New Orleans \(uno.edu\)

Coordinator, Dr. Lauren Lassabe llassabe@uno.edu

Most frequently reported Code of Conduct violations

- Academic Dishonesty
- Classroom Disruption
- Alcohol Policy Violations
- Drug Law Violations
- Parking Tickets
- Smoking Violations
- Offenses that fall under Title IX

Academic Dishonesty

- Cheating: The act of deception by which a student misrepresents mastery of information on an academic exercise. These acts can be either premeditated or not. Examples include, but are not limited to, copying or allowing someone else to copy from another student, unauthorized use of a textbook, electronic device, or other material during an examination; inappropriate and unauthorized collaboration during an academic exercise; unauthorized use or possession of specialty prepared materials, such as notes or formula lists, during an academic exercise.
- Plagiarism: The unacknowledged inclusion of someone else's actual words, ideas or data or the paraphrasing of someone else's words, ideas or data as if they were the student's own. All source material must be appropriately identified and cited according to the conventions for acknowledging source material. Students are responsible for learning these scholarly conventions; disregard of proper citation conventions can be considered plagiarism.
- Academic Misconduct: The actual or attempted tampering or misuse of academic records or materials such as transcripts and examinations. Examples include stealing, buying, or otherwise obtaining all or part of an unadministered test or academic exercise; selling or giving away or engaging in bribery to get all or part of an unadministered academic exercise or any information about it; changing or altering a grade book, test, or other official academic records of the University; entering a building or office without authorization for the purpose of changing a grade or tampering in any way with grades or examinations.
- Falsification/Fabrication: The intentional use of false information or the falsification of research, findings, personal or university documents with the intent to deceive. Examples include citing information not taken from the source indicated; listing sources in a bibliography not used in the academic exercise; inventing data or source information; submitting as one's own any academic exercise prepared totally or in part for/by another; taking a test for another student or permitting another student to take a test for oneself; submitting work previously used for credit in another course without express permission of the instructor; falsifying or misrepresenting oneself on resumes or other such documents or university related forms.
- Accessory To Acts of Academic Dishonesty: The act of facilitating, supporting, or conspiring with another student to commit or attempt to commit any form of academic dishonesty.

Title IX

Title IX | The University of New Orleans \(uno.edu\)

Definition

Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- (1) An employee of the University conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the University on an individual's participation in unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, whether verbal or physical;
- (2) Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the University's education program or activity; or
- (3) "Sexual assault" as defined in 20 U.S.C.1092(f)(6)(A)(v), "dating violence" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10), "domestic violence" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8), or "stalking" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30). Sexual harassment also includes sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. For purposes of this Policy, the various forms of prohibited Sexual Harassment are sometimes referred to as "Sexual Misconduct."

Scope of Policy

- Schools must respond when sexual harassment occurs in the school's education program or activity, against a person in the United States.
- Education program or activity includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the school exercised substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurred, and also includes any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by a postsecondary institution (such as a fraternity or sorority house).
- Reports about sexual misconduct that happened off campus or in a study abroad program, or for behavior that falls out of the scope of this definition, will be handled in a separate process.

What do you do if a student comes to you?

- If you are supervising students/student employees or are the instructor of record, you are considered a Mandated Reporter. You must let the person reporting to you know that you will have to report to the Title IX Coordinator or a Deputy Coordinator
- Mandated Reporter: An employee of the University who is obligated by policy to share knowledge, notice and/or reports of sex discrimination, sexual misconduct, and/or retaliation on behalf of the University.
- A student can discuss confidentially with a Confidential Resource (Counseling Services or the Women's Center)
- Ask if he/she is safe; does s/he need immediate medical or mental health care?
- Listen.
- Provide them with information on resources for assistance.

Filing an Incident Report

- Any individual may make a report of alleged Code of Conduct violations, academic dishonesty, Title IX incidents or other policy violations to the University. This can be done in a confidential manner. Depending on the level of information available about the incident or the individuals involved, the University's ability to respond to an anonymous report may be limited.
- Reporting can be made using the following link:

The reporting form is not a 911 or Emergency Service.

Do not use this site to report events presenting an immediate threat to safety or security threat. If this is an emergency, please contact UNO Department of Safety and Security at 504-280-6666 or dial 911.

This form can be used to report a variety of incidents including:

- Student conduct violations
- Academic dishonesty
- Student Care Network referrals
- Title IX violations
- Hazing
- COVID exposure or positive test results

Let us know which type of incident you're reporting by selecting the report type. The questions on the form may change based on the type of report selected.

While the report does allow for anonymous reporting, please know that our ability to respond thoroughly may be limited if we are unable to contact you for additional information.

Graduate Degree

Programs UNO offers graduate certificates and advanced degrees in 32 master's programs and nine doctoral programs, with on-campus and select online formats. All graduate programs involve a rigorous mix of scholarship and research, providing comprehensive instruction across each specialized area while refining students' independent investigation and evaluation skills. To successfully get through each program, students must exceed all minimum requirements, demonstrating mastery of all subject matters in exams, research, and presentations.

Graduate degree programs are currently offered through:

- The College of Business Administration
- The College of Liberal Arts, Education & Human Development
- The College of Engineering
- The College of Sciences

Types of Graduate Degrees

Master's Degree

Students working toward their master's degree must complete 30 semester hours of 5000-level or higher coursework, with no more than six (6) credit hours going toward researching and writing a thesis. To be awarded a degree, students must

- earn a minimum 3.0 grade point average (GPA) for all coursework;
- have an approved Candidate Plan of Study;
- complete a Master's Examination Report, in written, oral, thesis, capstone, or performance form, depending upon the degree program;
- submit an official Application for Graduation; and
- meet all program- or school-specific requirements.

Review all general master's degree requirements. For a complete picture of all program-specific expectations, reach out directly to the individual school or college.
