There was a discussion about the current backlog of course and curricula proposals. Charlotte provided an update on the state of the University Catalog. Lack of interoperability between Curriculog and Acalog has been a problem since they were implemented, so course and curriculum changes must be made to the catalog manually. She is meeting with Modern Campus at the end of October to discuss the problems with Curriculog and Acalog. She has also asked for volunteers or student workers to assist with the backlog. The Provost will be working with her on these issues.
